

“Business opportunities for FPOs in value addition and secondary agriculture”

About the training programme:

The training programme on “Business opportunities for FPOs in value addition and secondary agriculture” will be organized during 3rd and 4th January 2024. Interested candidates can apply and participate to make use of the training programme. The trainees has to first register for the training programme by filling the google form, the link for which will be uploaded in the ICAR- IIOR website.

Topics covered:

- Seed production in oilseeds, paddy, and millets.
- Value addition in oil seeds, millets & meat.
- Techniques for mass production of bio-pesticides.
- Soil testing an effective way to maintain soil health.
- Business plan development for FPOs.
- Opportunities in backyard poultry.
- Hands on training on bee-keeping and aspects on honey marketing.

Terms and conditions:

- The training programme will be organized during 03-04/01/2024.
- Only the first 25 registered participants will be selected and allowed to attend the training programme.
- The participant is considered registered only after final submission of complete google form.
- No changes will be made in dates of the training programme.
- No TA/DA will be provided for the participants for participating in the training programme.
- Lodging, boarding and food will be provided for the selected participants in the training programme.
- Accommodation will be provided for the participants in the ICAR-IIOR guest house.
- Participants are advised not to bring any of their family members.